

Wednesday Notes October 21, 2009
News and Information from the Peacham School

We are sending our weekly note home today because we do not have school Thursday the 22nd and Friday the 23rd due to teacher conferences. Everyone enjoy the extended weekend.

Picture Day

Individual student pictures will be taken on Wednesday, October 28th. Envelopes went home last Friday. There are extras in the office if anyone needs one.

Winter Phone Tree

A paper copy of the winter phone tree for parents in case of school closings is available at the school. Please look it over to make sure the information is correct. If you do not want to be a caller let Rossana know.

H1N1 Vaccination

The tentative date for the school wide H1N1 vaccination is Tuesday, November 17. The booster (2nd injection) for all children under 10 will be on Tuesday, December 15. Ruth will be sending home more information next week.

Red Barn Fundraiser

A reminder that Red Barn orders with payment are due Monday, October 26.
